This SHELL Guide is produced as part of the School-Higher Education Links in London (SHELL) project

Strengthening partnerships between the sectors

The SHELL project

SHELL forms part of the London Challenge programme for 2008-11. SHELL's purpose is to strengthen partnership working between London's 400-plus maintained secondary schools (including sixth form colleges) and its 40-plus higher education institutions (HEIs).

Find out more at:

www.londonhigher.ac.uk/SHELLFAQs.html

This SHELL Guide is for schools

SHELL seeks to involve the school and HE sectors equally. This SHELL Guide is designed to make it easier for school staff to contact London HEIs. Please be aware of variations in the capacity of HEIs to respond to requests.

We wish to create a similar directory of contacts in schools for circulation exclusively among London HEIs. If you would like your school to feature then please complete the form which can be downloaded at:

www.londonhigher.ac.uk/SHELLSchoolcontacts.html

Scope of the SHELL Guide

The contact details given are subject to change and the categories used have been simplified. For the most up-to-date listing, including more information about each HEI, view the online SHELL Directory at:

www.londonhigher.ac.uk/SHELLDirectory.html

SHELL is also interested in ...

... Encouraging two-way representation of schools and HEIs on their respective governing bodies.

Find out more at:

www.londonhigher.ac.uk/SHELLGovernance.html

SHELL tackles the two pledges in the London Challenge Vision document that by 2011:

1. Every maintained secondary school in London will have a partnership with one or more HE institutions (not necessarily within London), and

2. A higher proportion of young Londoners will go on to HE, including the more competitive universities.
