

LONDON HIGHER FACTSHEET 2016

FIRST DESTINATIONS OF GRADUATES FROM LONDON 2014/15

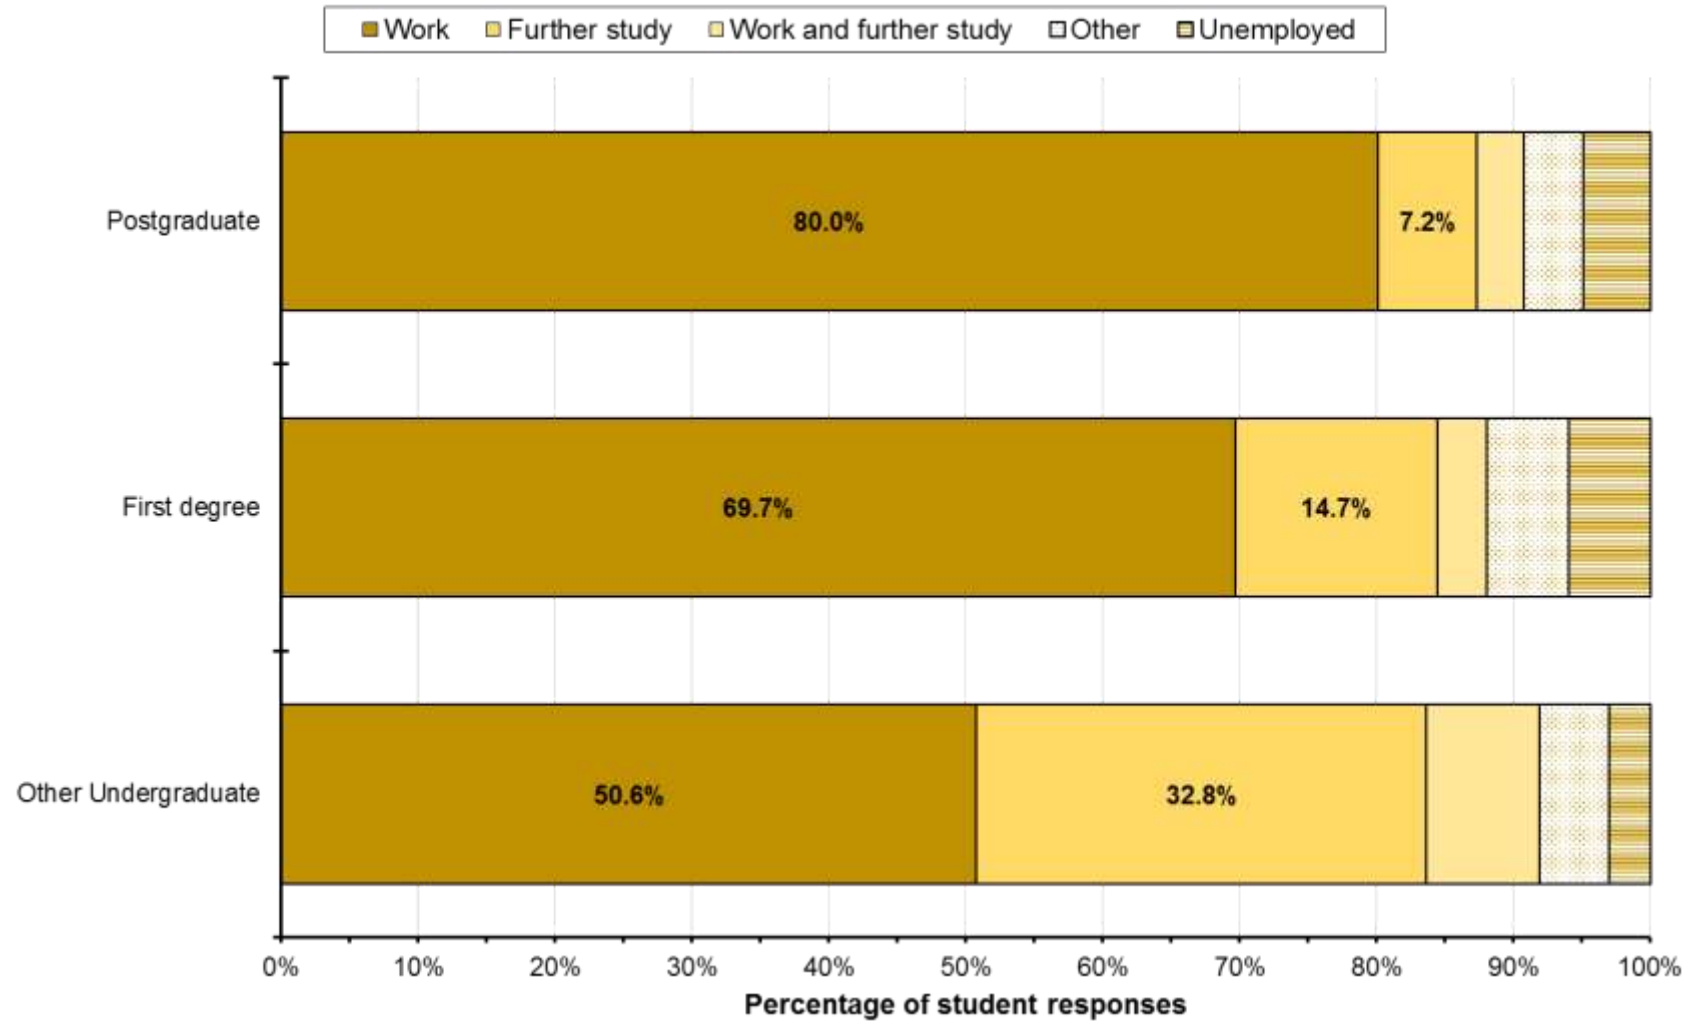

1. Graduates are currently surveyed six months after completing their higher education (HE) studies on their initial work or study activities;
2. In the latest survey 164 HE institutions in the UK provided returns including 39 HE institutions in London;
3. Over 67,800 UK and other EU graduates from London HE institutions responded, forming 17% of all 399,350 respondents in the UK;
4. In London 72% of UK and other EU graduates were in work, 17% were carrying out further studies or combining work and further study, while 5% were unemployed, but there were differences according to level and mode of study;
5. These figures were similar to findings for all of the UK where 72% were in work, 19% in further studies or combining work and further study, and 5% unemployed;
6. Less than 12% of graduates from London were unemployed, travelling and/or engaged in another activity outside of work or study;
7. Graduates who had studied part-time were more likely to have permanent or open-ended employment contracts;
8. About 72% of UK-domiciled graduates who studied in London found employment in the capital, and a further 19% were working in the East of England or the South East;
9. Combining response rates for all London HE institutions indicated a greater variation in survey responses with full- and part-time postgraduates compared to graduates of first degree or other undergraduate studies.
